

THE BOSS IS GAME, HE'LL STICK TO HIS JOB

ELECTRICS ARE SLAUGHTERED BY OGDEN

After Ogden had secured a lead, which meant the winning of the game, by batting Hummel out of the box in the fifth inning and Delhi in seventh was batted hard, the Great Falls players learned the lesson that they could hope for no victory with Ballinger doing the twirling for Ogden, and so Hester planned to ease the sting of defeat by turning the contest into a farce and he succeeded admirably, much to the disgust of the fans. The score ended: Ogden 18, Great Falls 5.

When Hummel was sent flying by the Ogden batters, Hester brought Delhi to the rescue and he, too, was clouted over the lot. The manager took a chance, himself, and retired soon in favor of Faye and later Toner. The score could have been much larger but, after the Ogden players had fattened their batting averages a trifle, they found no sport in hitting easy marks and so lost interest. Even though the game ended in a farce, it did the local crowd of fans good to see the arrogant Electrics slaughtered when they are so eager to win.

Up until the great fall of the Electrics in the seventh game was an exciting exhibition in which both teams did some sensational playing. Ballinger, suffering one bad inning, permitted Great Falls to score four times in the second, but Ogden tied the score before the seventh when Great Falls made an additional tally. It was when Ogden came to bat that the fireworks started.

Jimmy Moorehead opened the seventh with a single and went to third when Jones swung hard for two bases. Wessler singled, scoring the two ahead and went to second on Galena's wobble. A home-run by Risberg brought in Wessler. Delhi was then called on by Hester and the switching of pitchers began. Murray walked and Levy beat out a hit. Murray scored on Perkins' single and Ballinger's single scored Levy and Perkins. Woolums then sent out a homer scoring Ballinger. Moorehead singled for the second time in the inning and Jones was passed. Then Wessler got his home run scoring those on bases. With a total of twelve runs in the inning, Murray tied to Potts, Risberg walked home to be tagged and Levy let three strikes go by.

A bunch of singles and a home run by Perkins in the eighth added two more runs to the whole.

The Great Falls players carried a chunk of raw meat to the Fair grounds yesterday intending to parade in triumph before the fans after the game. A sign, bearing the statement, "Raw Meat for the Wolves," was to be paraded with the meat. One of the fans fired a boy with a dog. The dog got the meat.

An employee of the brewery entered the grandstand in the fourth inning with a sign bearing the slogan, "We Will Get Great Falls Goat." From the moment the sign and bearer made the appearance, the Kittens proceeded to do as the sign directed.

ERICKSON WINS HIS TWO GAMES

Salt Lake, July 27.—Manager John McCloskey of the Skylanders is "hard up" for pitchers, as he says, but he has one man who has surely rescued the local manager out of this dilemma in "Big Ed" Erickson. The former Ogden heaver has pitched four games in three days and won three of them. He pitched both games of the double header last Friday and, although he lost one of them, he should have won them both hands down. Today he again did the "iron man" stunt against Helena and both games went to his credit, the first 13 to 2 and the second 8 to 7.

Erickson pitched phenomenal ball in the first game, while Cooney, who opposed him, was hit to all corners of the lot. In the second Erickson was accorded help by his team mates at the outset, but they rallied for him a few minutes later and placed the game on ice. Williams, a big right hander from Oklahoma, was on the mound for the visitors in the second and showed the fans one of the finest curve balls seen here this season. He looked good and may be heard from in the future.

The second game, which made yesterday's double header possible, was transferred from last Friday and, in the belief that the two-bill attraction would bring out a crowd like that of Pioneer day. In the latter hunch the managers were disappointed, however, for threatening rain clouds kept away hundreds of people.

Erickson pitched last Friday when he had discharged Manager Danny Shay and that E. P. Briscoe, the present secretary of the club, would manage the team for the balance of the season. "Bill" Quigley, Helena's second baseman, is captaining the team. "Too high a salary and a lack of interest in his team" is assigned as the reason for Shay's discharge.

TROUBLE AMONG MINOR LEAGUES

SPORT—TROUBLE among the minor baseball leagues of the Pacific coast is promised in an announcement made here today that after this season no outside league will be allowed to play in the Coast league territory.

Portland, Ore., which has both Coast league and Northwestern league teams, is the only point affected. "It was the consensus of opinion that the fans of Portland are getting too much baseball," said President of the Coast League A. T. Baum announcing the decision.

Former Judge W. W. McCredy owner of both the Portland teams, said he would appeal from the decision.

MISSOULA TAKES TWO FROM BUTTE

Missoula, July 27.—The locals fattened their percentage today by taking both games of a double-header from Butte. Kellogg started in the box for Butte but was replaced by Robinson after the Missoula's had landed on him at will. Katoa caught both games. Trell pitched the first game for Missoula and only allowed one hit. Butte used two pitchers in the second game, Kallio and McCreery. Boben was on the mound for Missoula in the second game. The scores: First game, Butte 7; Missoula 5. Second game, Butte 8; Missoula 19.

RETURN TO CHICAGO

Chicago, July 27.—Members of the directorate of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States returned here tonight from a tour of the west in the interest of the organization. They expressed themselves as well pleased with the result of the trip.

BASEBALL

Cubs 6, Braves 5.

Chicago, July 27.—Pitcher Hess' generosity in issuing passes, coupled with opportune hitting by the locals, gave Chicago a 6 to 5 victory over Boston today. Chicago took an early lead on the visitors, but errors by Zimmerman coupled with hits by Clymer, Sweeney and Whaling enabled Boston to tie the score. Chicago again forced ahead when a pass to Leach, Philan's double, Zimmerman's sacrifice fly and Sailer's home run scored 3 runs. The Bostonians scored two more on a base on balls to Connolly, a triple by Smith and Sweeney's sacrifice fly. They added another run in the ninth when a batting rally by pinch hitters scored Rudolph, who ran for Titus and forced Lavender to retire. Cheney came to the rescue and retired the side without further damage. Chicago's winning run was made on Zimmerman's double, Sailer's out and Mitchell's inog fly. President Murphy announced today that he had purchased Pitcher Earl Moore, the former Philadelphia twirler. Moore was sold to St. Louis but would not report to Manager Huggins.

PIRATES BUY PAPPAS

Spokane, Wash., July 28.—Julius Pappa, a hard hitting rightfielder on the Spokane Northwestern league baseball team, has been sold to the Pittsburgh Nationals for $3,000. This is Pappa's first year in professional company. He will finish the season here.

Giants 2, Cardinals 1.

St. Louis, July 27.—"Rube" Marquard won his ninth consecutive game this afternoon, when New York defeated St. Louis 2 to 1. The contest was called at the end of the seventh inning because of rain. A double header had been scheduled for the afternoon but the rain left the diamond in such poor shape that the second game was called off after a few minutes.

Following are the averages of the leading major league pitchers who have participated in five games or more:

NO INTEREST IN PENNANT RACE

New York, July 27.—The approach of August finds interest in the major league baseball race, down almost to the vanishing point, so far as premier berths are concerned.

With Baseball's upward rush, rudely checked by the Glans and neither Philadelphia nor Chicago playing sustained winning power, there seems to be nothing to prevent New York from taking another National league pennant if McGraw's team continues to play the kind of ball of which it has shown itself capable.

The younger organization the situation is much the same, with the Athletics in the commanding positions.

The breaking up of the Pirate attack on the Giants' pennant aspirations was the big feature of the baseball week just ended.

Among other points of interest in the showing of Washington, Griffith's lively crew lost two games in the last two weeks. Only a game and a half separates them from Cleveland.

Washington is eleven games behind the Mack men—a gap it might be possible to fill or materially lessen if the leaders were on the road but the former champions now are at home for a comparatively long stay.

Washington's success is attributable in very great part to the sterling work of its great pitchers, Johnson and Booeching. The phenomenon of the left hander registered his eleventh consecutive victory this week. Nagel also has lately come to the front with some high class twirling to help his fellow pitchers. The team is hitting consistently, fielding well and fighting hard all the time.

Chicago was going well until the last few days when it struck a streak of poor batting and worse fielding. Hal Chase got into one of his spasms of errors. Chappelle, the new high priced outfielder, has been of little service. For some reason he has been sitting on the bench for the last few days. A blow to the teams supporters was the discovery that Ed Walsh was not yet in shape to pitch regularly.

The Boston's after a poor road trip during which they made their quick change of managers are playing better ball at home. Some promise has been shown recently by Detroit's work, the club apparently finding it especially easy to beat Philadelphia. The Crawford-Cobb combination is working well again.

As for the Giant-Pittsburgh clash, the recovered form of the Philadelphia's, and Brooklyn's brace were the notable features in the National league week.

Rucker's return to his usual form as evidenced by his holding Cincinnati to five hits today will be a great help to Brooklyn. Chicago, besides having suffered through the loss of Zimmerman's services for some time will be without his help for a while because of a minor injury sustained by the player in today's game.
